OCEAN WAY
NASHVILLE

Women's Audio Mission presents WAMCon Nashville, an immersive, hands-on conference bringing together music industry leaders and aspiring audio professionals. Held at the historic Ocean Way Recording Studios in Nashville in partnership with Belmont University on October 30 and coinciding with the Audio Engineering Society's flagship convention in Nashville.

Since 2017, WAM has hosted fifteen sold-out conferences in Boston, New York, Los Angeles, Nashville, at iconic studios and venues such as The Village, Capitol Studios, Disney Animation Studios, Ocean Way, East Iris, YouTube and NYU.

Past WAMCons have featured exclusive sessions with powerhouse music and audio professionals including Grammy-nominated, triple platinum country artist Cam, 2x Grammy-winning engineer/producer Gena Johnson (Brandi Carlile, Jason Isbell, Chris Stapleton), Amanda Davis (Janelle Monae, Olivia Rodrigo), Suzy Shinn (Dua Lipa, Katy Perry) and industry trailblazers like Susan Rogers (Prince) and multi-Grammy winning engineer Leslie Ann Jones.

Your partnership makes WAM's award-winning training accessible to women/gender-expansive individuals all over the world who are critically underrepresented in the recording industry (fewer than 5%).

OUR MISSION

Women's Audio Mission is a San Francisco-based recording studio and nonprofit dedicated to the advancement of women and gender-expansive people in music, audio production, and creative technology, fields in which they are critically underrepresented: fewer than 5% of the people creating the sounds, music, and media in the daily soundtrack of our lives are women or gender-expansive individuals. With locations in the Bay Area and Los Angeles, WAM offers accessible training, mentorship, and conferences to serve over 3,000 women, girls, and gender-expansive people annually in order to inspire them to amplify their voices and become the innovators of tomorrow.
